Rev. & Dear Sir:

Permit me to send a few lines expressing my appreciation of your splendid sermon this morning. Your message was very helpful and a real inspiration to me in the Young Peoples work in which I am engaged. I hope and pray that I may be a "Key Soul" to give my best, in the service of the Master, in working among these young People in this Presbytery.

Again thanking you, and hoping to tune in on your service at some future date,

Sincerely yours
Hazel M. Campbell

As the Boy Scouts were present I considered your text very appropriate.

If you happen to be an Oddfellow you would notice it an excellent sermon for an Oddfellow to be listening too.

I have two Boys who are Boy Scouts or rather Cubs as yet. Jack & Bill aged 10 yrs & 11 yrs.

In conclusion I wish your Church and the different Societies connected with it, The Boy Scout's of your town. and yourself every success.

Dear Sir;-

Accept my appreciation for the splendid sermon preached this morning thru W.M.A.K. by you on the text "BE PREPARED".

The sermon was received very clear and will say, that it was one of the finest sermons heard over the radio.

Although I am a member of one of the large

Methodist Churches in this City. I am sure that it was a great lesson taught to us all to "Be Prepared" and go the same way as David did.

Thanking you again for the Word of God. I am.

Yours respectfully
Geo. H. Fischle.

Dear Sir:

As your service was going on from the first peal of the bell to the signing off of W.M.A.N. two old men, one 82 years, who hadn't been able to get out of sight of his home in 4 years account of heart trouble, and the other 72 years old, were sitting here in my home (with their hearing sets on for the first time in their lives) and took in what they both agree was a fine sermon. The old gentleman 72 years old is so deaf, he can't hear the minister when he goes to church but as he expresses it, to his friend "Robinson talks slow & clear so you can get every word". The writer sure enjoyed your sermon and you may be assured that he will have the two old boys on the

Rev. Stewart Robinson,

I am writing to let you know I heard your address Oct. 18th on the subject "Be Prepared" which was given to the Boy Scouts. It was such a story I will never forget it and it came in so plain we heard the whole service all through. I am late in sending this but am going to send it as I want you to know I for one appreciated your address and am in hopes to hear your voice again.

Yours truly

My dear Mr.Trumbull:

I noticed my Fall article on the Conference in Edinburg in your issue of September 26th. Recently I also received a check for which please accept my thanks. Just the other day I received a copy of the Protestant Advocate with a full copy of Mr.Arthur H.Carter's address on Modernism. I am sending it herewith.

The secretary for Mr.Alexander Radcliffe,the secretary of the league,asked me to send him a copy of the Sunday School Times when my article was printed. I wonder if you would be kind enough to forward one to the Edinburg address.

I am very glad to hear that you and Mrs.Trumbull returned safely from your journey. It certainly was a beautiful summer. Mrs.Robinson joins me in sending our kindest regards to you and Mrs.Trumbull.

Very truly yours,

October 29th,1925.

My dear Mr.Fischle:

Thank you very much for your kind letter of October 18th. Your thoughtfulness in sending an acknowledgement of our Sunday morning service is very much appreciated. It is nice to hear from the Radio audience.

I hope that sometime it maybe my pleasure to meet you personally.

With very kindest regards,I am,

Cordially yours,

Mr.Carlisle Horning,
20 Clinton St.,
Castile,N.Y.

My dear Mr.Horning:

Thank you very much for your kind letter with reference to the Radio service last Sunday. I am very happy to know that your two elderly friends are able to go church in this way. We are finding it a great blessing to many people who are kept from attending church by reason of age,or deafness,or other infirmities.

Please give these gentlemen my very kindest regards.

Very truly yours,

October 29th,1925.

Mr.L.Collignon,

My dear Mr. Robinson:

I am glad to have your letter of October 29, and thank you for sending me the copy of Mr. Carter's address on Modernism. We are gladly sending Mr. Ratcliffe a copy of The Sunday School Times with your article.

Yes, we did have a wonderfully interesting, satisfying and profitable summer. I am sure you and Mrs. Robinson must have had, also. It was delightful to be with you both in Edinburgh, and Mrs. Trumbull would be joining me in warmest remembrance to you both if she were here as I write.

Please give me the privilege of seeing anything from your pen that you think would be appropriate for The Sunday School Times, at any time.

With every good wish, believe me

Yours faithfully,
